Positive Reviews

+ A sight to behold.

The hotel design is one of quiet, understated luxury. The lantern-lined reception, arched hallways and modern Moorish water gardens are simply beautiful and reflect the minimalist style of the rest of the hotel. Views are exceptional from guest rooms too.

+ Pools like no other.

The Chedi Muscat has three pools; one of which is among the largest in the Middle East at 108m in length, palm-lined with double day beds for guests to enjoy. Every one of the pools has its own cabana, serving drinks and food.

+ Relaxing ambience.

Previous guests have reported feeling relaxed the second they step through the stunning lobby, a feeling further helped by a trip to the health and fitness area; home to Muscat's largest spa. The hotel is spacious and, as a result, peaceful, even when at

Negative Reviews

- Too hot to handle.

Summer is very hot in Oman, with temperatures reaching in excess of 45 centigrade; little critique of the hotel itself but guests have suggested that the air conditioning struggles to manage. Several of the outside dining options also close during the hot

- Rooms may not suit all.

The vast majority of reviewers have only excellent things to say about the guest rooms, however, they may not suit everyone; beds are either King or Queen size, with no twin rooms available, and most bathrooms have only showers.

- Private beach requires attention.

In comparison to the rest of the hotel, the beach could do with some attention. The beach is private but, with rough sand and the odd piece of rubbish, it doesn't quite match the rest of the immaculately maintained grounds.
